WHO WE ARE

The Florida Panthers Foundation serves as the team's main charitable beneficiary. The vision of the Florida Panthers Foundation is to make a positive philanthropic impact on the South Florida community and beyond. MATT
CALDWELL

PRESIDENT & CEO, ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Matthew Caldwell is the President, Chief Executive Officer, and Alternate Governor of the National Hockey League's Florida Panthers. A U.S. Army veteran and former Vice President at Goldman Sachs, Caldwell first joined the Panthers as Chief Operating Officer in 2014. Just two years later, at age 36, Caldwell assumed the role of President & Chief Executive Officer, making him the youngest CEO in all of U.S. professional sports at the time.

Over the past several years, Caldwell's strategic efforts have played a pivotal role in the rebirth of the Florida Panthers-from building a front office team that continues to set franchise records in ticket sales, TV viewership, and sponsorship revenue, to onboarding Florida Panthers General Manager Bill Zito in 2020, whose transformational work led the team to its first Presidents' Trophy for most points in the 2021-22 regular season.

A graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, Caldwell went on to serve five years as a U.S. Army Captain where he conducted combat operations in Iraq, led peacekeeping operations in Kosovo, and trained soldiers preparing for deployment in Germany. During his military career, Caldwell was awarded a NATO Kosovo Military Medal, an Iraq Campaign Medal, and a Bronze Star Medal. Much in the way he diligently and selflessly served the country, Caldwell has continued to serve the Panthers franchise, pushing it towards great success.

As President & CEO, Caldwell led the Panthers through the COVID-19 pandemic, both ensuring the jobs of all full-time employees while setting a new blueprint for safety ahead of fan return; in December 2020, the Panthers home arena became the NHL's first to achieve the prestigious WELL Health-Safety Rating, which serves as the global benchmark for safety in public spaces, and soon after welcomed fans back to the stands with a reimagined in-game experience focused on health and wellbeing.

In lockstep with Panthers ownership, Caldwell's servant leadership has catapulted the organization's commitment and outreach to the South Florida community-from providing free educational programming to thousands of local students and committing more than $5 million to local nonprofits, to crisis relief efforts that have ranged from rebuilding a local family's home after a fire to sheltering and feeding thousands of community members at Panthers home arena during Hurricane Irma.

Under Caldwell's leadership, the Panthers have also placed a heightened emphasis on advancing diversity, inclusion, and access, both within the sport of hockey and the community beyond.

As an extension of this mission, Caldwell has played an instrumental role in the Panthers revitalization of Fort Lauderdale's iconic War Memorial Auditorium and construction of a new two-sheet team practice and community ice facility-the Baptist Health IcePlex-which will host an array of community hockey and skating programs and increase access to the sport to thousands of tri-county residents.

Caldwell was named as a South Florida Business Journal Ultimate CEO in 2021, and has also received 'Forty Under 40' recognition by both Sports Business Journal (2018) and South Florida Business Journal (2016). He is a member of the Greater Fort Lauderdale Alliance CEO Council, Broward Workshop Executive Committee, and Orange Bowl Committee, and serves as an advisor on the Broward College District Board.

Caldwell completed his J.D. degree from Northwestern University School of Law, his MBA from Northwestern Kellogg School of Management, and his Bachelor of Science degree from West Point. He resides in Fort Lauderdale with his wife, Fernanda, and their children, Flora and Pedro.

BILL ZITO

GENERAL MANAGER, ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Bill Zito was named General Manager of the Florida Panthers on September 2, 2020.

He is responsible for the club's hockey operations, including all matters relating to player personnel, scouting and minor league operations.

Zito overhauled the Panthers roster in his first season at the helm, quickly transforming the Cats into one of the most dynamic and exciting teams in the National Hockey League. In 2020-21, the Panthers set franchise records for points percentage (.705), goals per game (3.36) and shots on goal per game (34.9) en route to a second-place finish in the Central Division standings and a berth in the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

In 2021-22, The Panthers stayed atop the NHL standings for much of the campaign to earn the club's third division title and first Presidents' Trophy. The Panthers once again set club marks in points percentage (.744), goals per game (4.11) and shots on goal per game (37.3), earning a franchise-best 58 wins and 122 points, which marked the fourth-most points by a team in League history. The 2021-22 Cats were the first team since 1995-96 to average over four goals per game, and their 337 goals were the most of any club over that span. The Panthers combined 95-32-11 regular season record tied for the best mark of any club over that span, as well. Between Zito's first two seasons, the club boasted a league-leading 525 goals and paced all clubs with an average 3.80 goals per game and 36.3 shots on goal per game. Florida's 0.7283 points percentage under Zito's first two seasons at the helm is the highest points percentage through the first two seasons of any general manager in NHL history among those who started a season with a club in that position.

Improving every season under Zito's leadership, the Panthers 2022-23 season was highlighted by the hiring of veteran Head Coach Paul Maurice, the blockbuster acquisition of Matthew Tkachuk, an Eastern Conference Championship and the franchise's first-ever win in the Stanley Cup Final. The Panthers clawed their way into the 2023 playoffs as an eighth-seed, finishing the season with 43 fewer points than their Round 1 opponent—the League's all-time winningest regular season Boston Bruins—and defeating them in seven games. The Panthers became the second-ever team to overcome a 3-1 series deficit to defeat the Presidents' Trophy winner in any round, the eighth team to defeat the Presidents' Trophy winner in the opening round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs, and the third to do so via a Game 7 victory. After eliminating the Bruins, the Cats went on a rampage of eight wins in nine games, defeating the Toronto Maple Leafs in five games and sweeping the regular season's second-best team, the Carolina Hurricanes, punching their ticket to the franchise's second Stanley Cup Final appearance.

Off the ice, Zito established a first-of-its kind Goaltending Excellence Department, focused on a comprehensive, integrated experience and program for all goalies in the Panthers system and headed by Hockey Hall of Famer and Special Advisor to the GM, Roberto Luongo.

Prior to joining the Panthers, Zito spent seven seasons with the Columbus Blue Jackets organization (2013-14 to 2019-2020), serving as assistant general manager for six seasons before his promotion in 2019 to vice president of hockey operations, associate general manager and alternate governor. In 2015-16, Zito was named general manager for Columbus' American Hockey League affiliate, the Cleveland Monsters (then Lake Erie Monsters).

During Zito's first season with the Monsters, the club posted a franchise-record 97 points in the regular season and won its first-ever Calder Cup Championship. The Monsters produced a 15-2 record in the 2016 Calder Cup Playoffs, the best record for a team in four rounds in AHL history.

On the international stage, the Milwaukee, Wisc., native served as general manager for Team USA at the 2018 IIHF World Championship, capturing a bronze medal and posting a 6-2-0-2 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record, tied for the best-ever by a U.S. team in tournament play. Zito also served as a member of the management team for the United States at the 2015 IIHF World Championship, winning a bronze medal.

Prior to his career as an NHL executive, Zito founded and built Acme World Sports in 1995, building it into a world-renowned talent agency for hockey players. He represented Vezina Trophy winners Tim Thomas and Tuukka Rask, Vezina Trophy finalist Antii Niemi, Selke Trophy winner John Madden and All-Stars Kimmo Timonen and Brian Rafalski. Zito graduated from Yale University in 1987, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history. While at Yale, he played three seasons for the Bulldogs Division I men's ice hockey team. Following his graduation, Zito played one season of professional hockey in Europe before returning home to Wisconsin, where he attended law school at the University of Wisconsin-Madison from 1990-93. There he served as a graduate assistant and assistant coach for the Badgers hockey team as well as a radio color commentator until he graduated with his JD degree in 1993.

While attending high school in Milwaukee, Zito served as bat boy for the 1981 and 1982 Milwaukee Brewers under legendary general manager Harry Dalton, who encouraged Zito to one day pursue a career in management. In 1982, the Brewers owned the best record in Major League Baseball and won the American League pennant before falling to the St. Louis Cardinals in seven games in the 1982 World Series.

Zito and his wife, Julie, are the parents of twin daughters, Frankie and Gigi and son, Billy.
